Indigenously-developed powders from scrap material to be used for repairing aero-engine

By Anand Kumar

Delhi: A team of scientists from the Indian Institute of Space Science and Technology (IIST) has developed a process to use scrap material for repairing aero-engine components. The process involves using scrap material to create a powder that can be used to repair damaged parts of an engine. This process is a significant step towards self-reliance in the aerospace industry.

Govts should take HC approval before withdrawing cases against MPs/MLAs:

By Anand Kumar

Delhi: The Supreme Court has issued a landmark judgment stating that the government must seek the approval of the High Court before withdrawing criminal cases against Members of Parliament (MPs) and Members of Legislative Assemblies (MLAs). This decision is aimed at preventing the government from using its power to shield its members from legal action.

COVID in India may be entering a stage of endemicity: WHO expert

By Anand Kumar

Delhi: A WHO expert has stated that COVID-19 in India may be entering a stage of endemicity. The expert noted that the virus is circulating widely in the population, and the number of new cases is declining. This suggests that the virus is becoming a part of the community's normal life, similar to other common viruses like the flu.
